CSCI 1510                       Student in University

Credit Hours:  3
Contact Hours:  3
Course Coordinator:  Todd Franklin
Text(s):  None

Catalog Description:

This course is meant to provide guidance to first-year university students as they begin their search for directions to take in self-definition, intellectual growth, career choices, and life skills. Only first semester students may enroll.

Prerequisite(s):  None

CS:  REQUIRED
IS:  REQUIRED
IT:  REQUIRED

Course Outcomes:

Understand and demonstrate effective, concise and accurate writing skills - ETSU Outcome 1b; ABET Outcome f

Demonstrate skills necessary to conduct an oral presentation that is clear, concise, factual and informative - ETSU Outcome 1a; ABET Outcome f

Demonstrate the ability to perform as part of a team - ETSU Outcome 1c; ABET Outcome d

Define a clear personal career path and the goals needed to reach it.

Understand ethical issues in both the college setting and professional arena - ETSU Outcome 2a; ABET Outcomes e.1, e.2, e.5

Utilize the Sherrod Library and other resources for research projects - ETSU Outcomes 1b, 2b; ABET Outcomes f, h

Use ETSU's Email and Course Management Systems.

Name resources available at ETSU.
Major Topics:

College Success Skills (note taking, study tips, effective listening, setting goals, interpersonal relations, critical thinking)
Ethics/Cheating/Plagiarism
Group Work/Oral Presentations
Personality Types/Career Exploration
Research
Campus Issues and Resources (drug/alcohol, sexual harassment, nutrition, relationships, library, career services)
Career and education planning
Introductory Computer Science Concepts